RHHS Has Four National Merit Semi Finalists

We are very proud to say that 6 of the 7 semi-finalists from York County are from Rock Hill High School. These students are Bill Brooks, Steve Baker, Billy Blackwell, Truly Bracken, Dale Carroll, and Celeste Williams. John Faris, also of Rock Hill High School, who rated just below the semifinalists, received a Letter of Commendation for his high rating on the test.

Last spring 17,500 high schools all over the nation administered National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Tests which were sponsored by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. From the students taking the qualifying tests, 14,000 high school seniors were chosen in the 1966-1967 competition. These students were chosen from their scores as semifinalists. Included in these 14,000 semifinalists were 170 students from South Carolina and 7 students from York County.

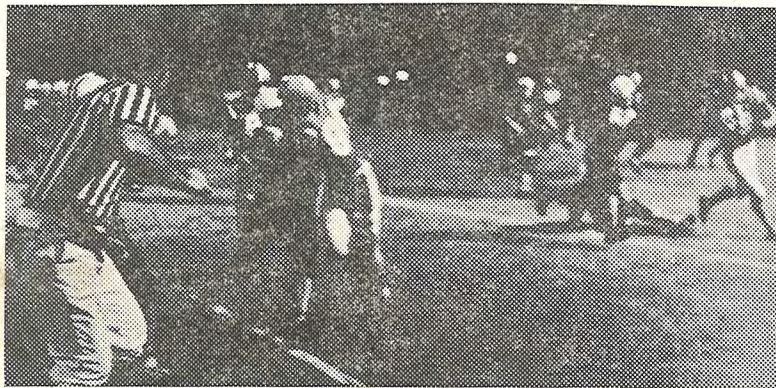

Next spring the finalists will be selected. Each of the winners will receive a four-year scholarship, which covers the undergraduate years at the college of his choice and in the course of study he chooses. The awards will range from 400 dollars to 6000 dollars, depending on the needs of the winners.

Student Council

This year President Brien Ward and the Student Council are again hard at work helping you. Our sock hops are proof of that. In the past the Student Council has gained for you the canteen, senior exemptions and have helped make RHHS the best school in the state!

At the very beginning of this year the Student Council Representatives were elected from each home room to serve you. They in turn elected four capable officers, President-Brien Ward, Vice-president-George White, Secretary-Tommy Gainey, Treasurer-Barbara Moore.

BEARCATS IN FOOTBALL ACTION

My Turn

By Steve Ellison

SOCK HOPS

One of the student council's recent accomplishments, namely the sock hops after home games, appears to be working out quite well. For some time these sock hops were not allowed, and the student council had to work quite hard to acquire permission to arrange for them. If we show that nothing wrong can come from these dances, we probably can look forward to many more of them during the remaining football season and into the basketball season. Let's try to hold onto our sock hops.

NEVER TOO EARLY

Seniors, it's not too early to start applying to the colleges of your choice. Apply to several if you are not entirely sure of your choice. Ask about scholarships grants; many go unnoticed yearly because only a few are aware of the many scholarship opportunities offered. Remember, college is a lot more demanding than high school, so try to develop good study habits during your last year in high school.

STUDIOUS STUDENTS

He (she) walks into the room and puts his (her) books on the desk. Chances are that a paper back book can be seen among the hardbacks issued courteously by the school at the first of the year. And this paperback probably isn't a cheap dime novel story book, but a college required book such as Brave New World, Wuthering Heights, or Lord of the Flies. It's not that our students have become inclined to the classics; no, not at all. Our English teachers have decided that they would help us out by making us read all these books to prepare for college. Don't you feel that we owe them a lot for being so thoughtful?

Dear Editor,

There is a small conflicting problem which has come up! The library, a store house for books, no longer allows one to come into its serenity to study. One must look up a book or do reference work. This is very inconvenient for one who cannot study in his study period which is so noisy and boisterous one can not even hear himself think. The noise shows an inability on the part of the study period teacher and the librarian to control the students. Why should the ones who want to study be denied this privilege? I shall leave this problem in the hands of the staff and faculty.

Table No. 14

I am table No. 14. I live in the large cafeteria at Rock Hill High School, Rock Hill, S. C. Naturally I have plenty of chance to observe all types of eaters. First of all there is the "barbarian" who puts civilization back 1000 years with his manners. In his rush to get to who knows where, he shovels his food down, gulps a pint of milk in one swallow, and hurls his culinary utensils like a battle-axe into the kitchen. And before he leaves the cafeteria in his mad rush to freedom, he has trampled on at least 15 sets of toes.

And then there is the "fox" who slinks around corners, and glares at you with his beady little eyes if you dare get in his way on his quest to be first in the lunch line. He dashes down the halls glancing over his shoulder with the furtive look of an escaped fugitive. Finally he slips into the cafeteria and prances

So, don't complain; it's for your own good that you are doing this. Relax and enjoy it, if you're that kind of person.

LEST WE FORGET

The toll of deaths in Viet Nam grows daily, and though we be for or against this nation's stand in that small country, we should remember that those who died in the rice paddies or steaming jungles died for the maintaining of freedom and democracy which we take for granted perhaps more than any of our endowments.

AND FINALLY

I'm not one to grovel for money, and I don't want to appear to be intolerant to a little fun, but I hope the slob who took two of my chocolate bars pays for them, or dies of acute acne!!

SUPPORT THE FIGHTING BEARCATS TONIGHT

'Nuff said!!

Great Sacrifices

It is truly a unique experience to be called about 9:30 P.M. and be told that you are to write an article for the Garnet and Black. You proceed to sit down at your typewriter, or with your pencil and paper as the case may be, and suddenly come to the realization that you have absolutely nothing to write about. This causes much stress and also has some bizarre side effects such as writing about light bulbs on B hall and similar things (now really!). There are other prime examples of this as can be seen in past issues. Do you remember Batflake? We may be hearing some more about him sometime this winter when some poor reporter gets conned into staying up past bed time to write an article. And what about Seed-rah? Sometimes, Helen, I don't know; I just don't know. There are times when I wonder.

You must admit, though, sometimes we do manage to luck up and hand in a pretty decent article. Steve manages to write a good editorial column even though he does need a hair cut.

At any rate, we inherited a good paper from last year's staff and we are going to make it even better. So remember that one of your schoolmates probably missed some sack time to bring you his monumental contribution to the world of literature.

proudly up to the front of the line and discovers he forgot his lunch ticket.

Finally there is the category I shall call the "Bearcat". They walk leisurely to the cafeteria, wait in line, chatting amiably, eat with good manners, and otherwise raise the standards of RHHS. These are the people who make RHHS the great school it is, by their calmness, good sense, and school spirit. I am sure all my immediate readers fit into this category. By Johnny Crow

Prayer In Public Schools - Pro and Con

PRO

In June 1962 the United States Supreme Court ruled that prayers in public schools were prohibited by the First and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution. Shortly afterward, Senator Everett Dirksen, with several other Senators, introduced a Constitutional amendment to reverse this decision and permit school boards to provide for voluntary prayers in public schools. Slightly more than four years later, in September 1966, the proposed amendment was finally brought to the floor of the Senate and was rejected. It received forty-nine votes in favor and thirty-seven against—a majority, but less than the two-thirds required for Constitutional amendments.

Senator Dirksen has expressed his intention to introduce the amendment again next year. This time, it should be approved in order to permit true freedom of religion—both for those who admit the existence of a Supreme Being and for those who deny it. Freedom of religion means the right to worship or not to worship as an individual sees fit. The Supreme Court seems to be so concerned in its decisions with the right of atheists not to pray, that the court forgets the corresponding right of those who believe in God to pray to Him, if that is their desire. This policy hardly protects the "free exercise" of religion called for in the First Amendment, but rather, imposes freedom from religion upon children in school. Seldom has the Court so tortuously twisted the simple language of the Constitution.

It is difficult to follow the Court's logic when it states that brief devotionals held in classrooms or in school assemblies are contrary to the Constitution. The authors of the Constitution were deeply religious men who believed that each citizen should have the right of his own religious convictions and observances, or lack of them, without interference from the government. The Dirksen amendment should be passed in the next session of Congress in order to reinstate this principle of religious freedom in the public schools.

CON

It is difficult for those who have been brought up in a Christian community to view the Supreme Court's decision on school prayers in an objective light, but emotionalism must be put aside if the rights of all involved are to be respected. The Court's ruling states that provision by a State authority for prayers in public schools violates the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment by giving indirect encouragement to religious observances by school children. This view is verified by the mere fact that any government action had to be taken; for if the prayers were truly voluntary, no law would be needed to provide for their observance.

The real effect of the Dirksen

Volleyball Captains Chosen

The G.A.A. has already started the volleyball tournament and the captains have been chosen. They are Lillian Pitts, Terry Workman, Lois Ann Bolin, Ellen Boyd, Mildred Playler, Kitty Jenkins, Barbara Robinson, Dedee Branham, Betty Jo Smith, Diane Ferrell, Jackie Oates, and Frances Grant. The games are played after school. Everyone is invited to watch the girls struggle for the championship.

In preparation for all this, Brian Ward and George White attended a meeting at Mt. Pleasant. Their trip gave them a much better understanding of the duties they must perform in the coming year.

amendment, however commendable the purposes of its proponents may be, would be the psychological intimidation of children, not the free exercises of religion; a child should not be exposed to the pressure that would be exerted by his teacher and classmates if he did not wish to participate. Unfortunately, too few children would have the courage to be the only nonconformist in the group. The proposed amendment would not only give official sanction to religious practices in school, but it would also necessitate favoritism for one particular sect or type of religion which is usually the one prevailing in the school district. Prayers of a Protestant nature, for example, could be established to the exclusion of prayers of a Catholic nature.

The Dirksen amendment, as drawn, would lead to many abuses both in interpretation and in practice. The government should not attempt to enact legislation in this area, but should leave well enough alone; for worship is one of the most personal activities performed by man, and each individual should be left free to practice it in his own way. The defeat of this amendment is in the best interests both of the nation and of established religion.

TEXT OF THE PROPOSED SCHOOL-PRAYER AMENDMENT

"Nothing contained in this Constitution shall prohibit the authority administering any school, school system, educational institution or other public building supported in whole or in part through the expenditure of public funds from providing for or permitting the voluntary participation by students or others in prayer. Nothing contained in this article shall authorize any such authority to prescribe the form or content of any prayer."

The Bench-Warmer

By Becky Baker

Hi there, sports fans! I am certain that everyone will agree with me that we have two mighty fine football teams this year—both varsity and junior varsity. For the past few years, RHHS' varsity team has had individual outstanding players such as Connie Wade, Dennis Partlow, Randy Nunn, and Greg Peeler. This year's team works as an outstanding unit rather than having a few outstanding players. Let's take a look at some of this year's varsity games.

Bearcats Defeat Generals

RHHS defeated Wade Hampton 14-3 in Greenville September 30, even though it was not one of the Bearcats' best games. Hampton scored first as Buddy Dunford kicked a 31-yard field goal. The Bearcats came back as Jimmy Laughridge ran all the way for Rock Hill's first touchdown. The extra point by Kirk Canty was good to give the Bearcats a 7-0 lead.

Ray Wilson scored the next touchdown by running 82 yards after a pass from Laughridge. Canty extended the lead to 14-3. Wilson and Laughridge were outstanding for the 'Cats while Sandy Watts was noted for both defensive and offensive work for the Generals.

RHHS Smears Spartanburg

RHHS left Spartanburg October 7 with a 22-0 victory. Laughridge scored the first TD during the first quarter. He made several magnificent runs while Andy Scott, Jimmy Blackmon, and Bucko Brandt made some fine tackles.

After an interception Laughridge completed several passes to Gerald Gullledge. Jimmy Pope scored the Bearcats' second TD after a pass from Laughridge. Canty's kick was good to give the 'Cats a 13-0 lead at the end of the half.

During the third quarter, Laughridge carried the ball to the Spartanburg 5 yard line. Wilson charged forward two yards, and then to the 1 yardline. Rusty Thompson drove through the Spartanburg line for the 'Cats' third TD. The kick by Canty was good for a 20-0 lead. The third quarter continued with Pope and David Porter playing excellent defensive ball. RHHS tried for a field goal but was unsuccessful.

RHHS obtained 2 points in the last quarter on a safety. The second team entered the game with Dickie Ray making several great runs. RHHS attempted another field goal but again failed.

Lancaster Gains Victory Over Rock Hill

October 14 was a sad night for many Bearcats as they received their first defeat of the year. Lancaster defeated RHHS by a slim 7-6 in Rock Hill.

RHHS seemed to be off on defense during the first quarter. Lancaster and Rock Hill punted several times, but neither team scored. Rock Hill had trouble completing passes throughout the game.

Jimmy Blackmon took over for Laughridge as Laughridge was injured during the second quarter. The half ended 0-0.

The RHHS defense showed some improvement at the beginning of the third quarter. Lancaster's gamble recovered a RHHS fumble and ran for a TD. The kick was good to give Lancaster a 7-0 lead. Later during the quarter, Blackmon intercepted a Lancaster pass. Billy Tipping crossed the goal line for RHHS's only TD. The kick was no good so Lancaster still led 7-6. David Porter and Charles Sibley made several fine tackles.

There was plenty of action, but no scoring during the final quarter. Lancaster left with a 7-6 victory.

Bearcat Club Formed

The newly formed Bearcat Club is an organization for the Bearcat players only. This club is composed of only the finest players. It takes much time, patience, and effort to get into this club. As of now, only a few RHHS boys have completed all of the requirements to join. For each task the boys may complete, he receives points.

Some of the requirements the boy has to complete consist of a kick off. He will be awarded 50 points for this. Second is a pass interception. Again the players may receive 50 points. Another is a block kick or, in other words, he may block a punt or an extra point. Still again, 50 points may be awarded. To make a key block and be awarded 50 points is another. The player may also be awarded 10 points for a point after a touchdown. To be elected Bearcat of the week the boy may receive 25 points.

Bearcats To Tangle With Golden Tornado Tonight

The RHHS Bearcats will face the Parker Golden Tornado tonight at 8:00. This will be the RHHS homecoming game.

The Tornadoes' are coached by coach "Whitey" Kendall. Outstanding players include Joe Nix, Darry Elliot, Danny Watson, Allen Fair, and Benny Langly. This year's Tornado has changed its offense by lining up in an I-formation with a flanking end and back. This is done, according to The Parker Herald, "to get more efficient running and passing."

Last year RHHS rolled over Parker by a 27-14 score. Parker led in first downs 13 to 12, but RHHS completed 100% of their passes while Parker completed only 56%.

This year Spartanburg defeated Parker 25-7. The Bearcats defeated Spartanburg 22-0. The Golden Tornado obtained a 16-6 victory over Dorman. Nix scored all 16 points for Parker and Watson averaged 40 yards on his kicks. Parker rushed for 96 yards and completed three out of eleven passes. RHHS plays Dorman November 18 to finish the Bearcats' season.

Bearkittens Push Ahead

The Rock Hill High School Junior Varsity football team was undefeated after five outings. If this gave evidence of anything to be expected of the Bearcats in the near future, the team should have a good season.

The Bearkittens, as they are often called, walked off with a 20 to 0 victory in their first game with Clover in Clover on Sept. 15.

In the next game the Bearkittens defeated Chester in Chester on Sept. 22. The score was the same as the week before of 20 to 0.

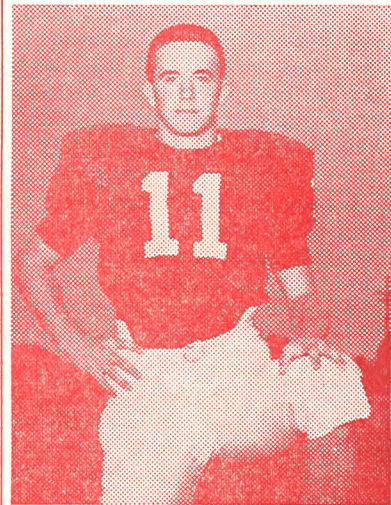

The following week the Bearkittens traveled to Dorman of Spartanburg and trampled them 27 to 7 on Sept. 29.

Next the Bearkittens came home on October 6, for their first appearance against Chester with the same score as the week before with Dorman, 27 to 7.

The Bearkittens again played at home the following week to play Gaffney in one of their toughest games of the season. But the Bearkittens had little trouble in beating Gaffney 34 to 7 on Oct. 13.

The Bearkittens' defensive teams have done outstanding jobs. The defense has been outstanding in only allowing 21 points in five games for an average of 4.2 points a game. The offense has excelled in scoring 128 points for five games for an average of 25.6 points per game.

Laughridge Chosen Bearcat Of Month

Jimmy Laughridge, quarterback for Rock Hill Bearcats, has been chosen Bearcat of the Month for October. Jimmy, a junior, has thrilled the crowds at every game with his brilliant play calling, passing, and running. Jimmy has thrown two touchdown passes and has run two other touchdowns showing his great versatility. Establishing himself as the team leader, he has led the fighting Bearcats to victory in the first four games this year. This includes the great 7-0 victory over Gaffney in which he threw an eighty-yard touchdown pass to Gerald Gullledge for the only score of the game. He was ready to lead the Bearcats to their fifth straight win, but an unfortunate injury to his left shoulder knocked him out of the game early in the second quarter. Without him the Bearcats could not seem to get going and lost to Lancaster 7-6.

Jimmy looks as if he will develop into one of the best quarterbacks RHHS has ever had. A big Bearcat salute goes to Jimmy Laughridge, the October Bearcat-of-the-Month!!!

In the future Miss Hope and the Student Council will help with both the sock hops and homecoming as well as a big pep meeting before homecoming. In addition the Student Council is offering scholarships to two deserving students.

I would like to thank the Garnet and Black Staff for electing me the new feature editor. I will do my best to help make the Garnet and Black a paper which you can enjoy and be proud of.

I wish you could have seen Bill Brooks at Clemson this summer. Ask Bill about how he broke sweet Jenn's heart. I can still hear Bill singing "I dream of Jenny." Don't worry Bill....you will probably see her again.

Don't ask Steve B. about his episode with Randy D. I hear Steve has really changed in the last couple of weeks.

There are a couple of things I would like to bring to the students' attention. The boys of the Myron Sandifer Chapter Order of De Molay are selling stadium cushions for a fund raising project. The cushions are very nice. They are vinyl coated and have a Bearcat on one side. They sell for $2.50. See De Molay for your cushion.

Guess Who Quiz?

Well, students, can you guess who this month's baby is? Is it a male or female? How about some clues? O. K.

This Bearcat is a senior who has a special interest in basketball. Last year this student could be found singing during second period. Mrs. Oates' chemistry class was another place where this student could be found last year. After earning a letter this student was admitted to the Block R Club. His or her picture can be found on page 103 of last year's Bearcat. This year the senior is in one of Mrs. Good's English classes.

Do you know who this Bearcat is now?

As many students have guessed, David Porter was last month's baby.

Since tonight is Homecoming, I cannot go without a word about the football team. We all know we have the best football team in the state, so let's give them some support. I am sure all the boys on the team expect to see every one of us at the game tonight to watch them beat Parker. Let's not let them down.

Homecoming at Parker

Since we are playing Parker for homecoming this year, we thought you might be interested in the manner which they conduct their homecoming. To find out this "info" for you, we contacted some "ole Parker Students."

Parker holds a special homecoming pep rally the morning before the game. If it is as wild as our homecoming rally, it must really be a "swinger."

Before the game the homecoming sponsors ride around the stadium in convertibles. During the game the sponsors sit along the sidelines. At halftime the senior players escort the sponsors onto a stage on the field. The queen is then crowned.

During the halftime ceremonies the Parker Alumni are recognized by having them stand. The old cheerleaders who happen to be in the stands are asked to come down on the field and lead a cheer.

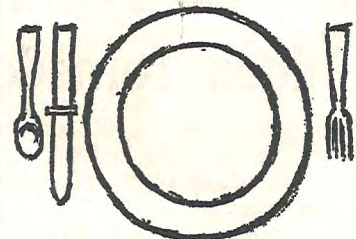

After the game Parker has a reception for the queen and sponsors, the alumni, the football players and the cheerleaders. The reception is held to allow the alumni to get together and chat among themselves and to meet the football players. The music department provides entertainment during the reception.

Come and Get It

Girls, next time before you start planning a banquet for 500 people, perhaps you should ask Mrs. Hyatt for some good advice. Mrs. Hyatt is the new manager in the Rock Hill High School lunchroom, and I'm sure that she has had plenty of experience in preparing meals for large crowds of hungry people. Every day she and a group of seven others feed 580 students and faculty members at Rock Hill High. You can imagine what the food bills look like. The cost of milk for just one day is $65 which is only a few dollars more than the price of hamburger for one meal. This bill runs up to $100 for a delicious meal including chicken drumsticks, a specialty of the house. And if you ever want to save time by making 600 biscuits at one time, you'll need 30 pounds of flour, 8 pounds of shortening, 1 1/4 pounds baking powder, and 3/4 cup of salt. That ought to last you for a while. But if you have some biscuits left over, why not convert them into ham biscuits and serve them with hot soup on a cold and rainy day. If you are feeding the same big crowd, it would be wise to buy 60 gallons of soup which is only about 480 medium-sized cans. That should fill 'em and make 'em warm-hearted, too!

No kidding, folks, many hours are spent in the planning and preparation of meals each day here at school. We should be more than grateful to those who are striving by serving attractive and nourishing food to make our lunch hour a pleasant occasion.

Our many thanks to the lunchroom staff of Rock Hill High School.
